

I am deeply concerned about the corporate takeover of the American media and I urge you to act to protect the First Amendment and the right to know by supporting expansion not contraction of ownership. Without a broad, free and uninhibited media I fear for American democracy.